EXECUTIVE ORDER 95-22

(Corrected Page One)

I, Frank Keating, Governor of the State of Oklahoma, pursuant to the powers vested in me by Section 2 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution, hereby establish the Oklahoma School-To-Work Executive Council.

It is my intent that, in order to ensure that the Oklahoma educational system provides an opportunity for students to make an effective transition from school to their chosen career, this Council shall provide the guidance necessary for encouraging and securing more efficient participation and more effective use of the services available for student education, training, and employment. The Council shall provide the vehicle to facilitate a collaborative effort among professionals in common education, higher education, vocational education, and the business community.

The Oklahoma School-To-Work Executive Council shall have the following responsibilities:

1. Recommend policy for the development and implementation of a school-to-work system in this state.
2. Provide leadership, coordination, and information dissemination regarding the school-to-work system in this state.
3. Develop criteria for localities seeking to establish local school-to-work partnerships.
4. Prepare a report as to the efforts of the Council and the results of those efforts.

The Executive Council shall obtain assistance as needed to accomplish the mission set forth in this executive order and the federal grants, consistent with the grant budgets.

The Oklahoma School-to-Work System shall be administered by the State Board of Vocational and Technical Education as directed by the Council. The Council shall have authority to resolve School-to-Work compliance issues and shall collaborate with the Board in planning, developing, and implementing the Oklahoma School-to-Work System.
